CONDITIONS TO BE READ AND ACKNOWLEDGED BY STUDENT

A student admitted under Unclassified Admission status is not eligible for temporary admission and must submit all required documentation within the first semester (two accelerated semesters), or will not be allowed to enroll in subsequent semesters. In the event the final records indicate the student was not eligible for admission, coursework will be changed to audit, whether completed or in progress and no refunds will be given nor academic credit awarded.

A student may not obtain an official transcript from Troy University while under Unclassified Admission.

The maximum load for an unclassified student is 13 semester hours (seven semester hours per accelerated semester).

I understand I may not change my primary campus of contact (campus through which the application for admission was processed) until I am admitted unconditionally.

I understand the stipulations of my Unclassified Admission to Troy University as stated above and agree to provisions therein.
